

TRAINING & RESOURCES FOR CLINICAL INSTRUCTORS

All Aspects of the Supervision Process

A new book entitled Guide to Clinical Supervision (2017) available for $45 USD:

<https://www.attainmentcompany.com/guide-to-clinical-supervision>

Chapters include: Clinical Supervision Basics, Building Successful Interpersonal Relationships, Feedback, Coaching, and Evaluation, and Conflict Resolution and Formal Remediation

A free online guide created by the BC Academic Health Council:

<http://practiceeducation.ca/about.html>

Modules include: Setting the Stage, The Role Learning Plays, Enhancing Your Teaching Skills, Fostering Clinical Reasoning, Giving Feedback, The Evaluation Process, Supporting the Struggling Student, and Strategies for Resolving Conflicts

A free online guide created by Western University:

www.preceptor.ca

Modules include: Orientation, Developing Learning Objectives, Giving and Receiving Informal Feedback, Understanding and Fostering Clinical Reasoning, Fostering Reflective Practice, Dealing with Conflict, The Evaluation Process, Peer Coaching, and Optimizing the Learning Process

Providing Feedback

Aids for Giving and Receiving Feedback by Dr. George Lehner:

<http://srs-mcmaster.ca/wp-content/uploads/2015/05/Aids-For-Giving-Receiving-Feedback.pdf>

Feedback Checklist:

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/documents/feedbackchecklist.pdf>

Feedback Grid:

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/documents/FeedbackGrid.pdf>

Effective Questioning Checklist:

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/documents/effectivequestioning.pdf>

One-Minute Preceptor (5 Microskills Method):

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/documents/oneminutepreceptor.pdf>

The above four resources are provided by McMaster's Program for Faculty Development. Additional resources related to teaching, although not specifically clinical education, are available here:

https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/teaching_tools.html

General Education for Health Professionals

<https://www.mededworld.org/SIGs.aspx>

Sign up for an account (free) and then search for information either via the options in the left hand menu or by entering a search term (e.g., “clinical reasoning”) in the search box at the top.

McMaster’s Program for Faculty Development

Courses that are offered only for Clinical Instructors who have an appointment as Assistant Clinical Professor (Adjunct):

Practice-Based Small Group Education Modules (packages designed to be used at your facility):

Information on available modules:

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/documents/ModuleSummaryDec2016.pdf>

Order form ($100 per module):

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/documents/EducationalModulerequestandpaymentformREVOct152013.pdf>

Academic Pathways:

https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/academic_pathways.html

Finally, for experienced Clinical Instructors who are coaching other clinical staff to develop their student teaching/supervision skills, McMaster’s Program for Faculty Development offers some excellent resources to assist in observing peer performance:

https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/peer_coaching_observation_and_mentoring.html

Additional courses can be found here:

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/facdev/events.html>

<https://mi.mcmaster.ca/teaching-development/> (through the MacPherson Institute)

Additional Resources

Recorded Webinar from Mac PT: Supporting Students: A Win-Win Opportunity

<https://srs-mcmaster.ca/supporting-students-a-win-win-opportunity-webinar/>

The Director of Clinical Education is available to act as a resource for Clinical Instructors at any time. Individuals on the Mac SLP email distribution list will also receive flyers of any upcoming workshops at McMaster, as well as the Mac SLP quarterly newsletter.